Weeks returns to AgHeritage in role of Vice President, Agribusiness & Capital Markets

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is thrilled to welcome Weston Weeks back to the team as VP, Agribusiness & Capital Markets, based in the company's central office in Little Rock.

"We are very excited to announce that Weston will be returning to AgHeritage," AgHeritage EVP, Chief Operating Officer Blake Swindle said. "During his previous tenure he made significant contributions to the company. His return is eagerly anticipated, and we look forward to the valuable expertise and experience that he will bring to his new role as VP of Agribusiness and Capital Markets."

Weeks originally joined AgHeritage in June 2018 as a Credit Analyst at the company's central office. In May 2020, he was promoted to the position of Agribusiness Credit Officer.

After leaving AgHeritage in November 2022 to work for his family's business in Northeast Arkansas, Weeks is now rejoining the company in a leadership role. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History from Hendrix College and a Master of Science in Agricultural Economics from the University of Arkansas.

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is a financial cooperative with owned and managed assets of approximately $2.46 billion as of December 31, 2023. The company provides credit and related services to approximately 6,400 farmers, ranchers, and producers or harvesters of aquatic products in 24 Arkansas counties. Branch offices are located in Batesville, Brinkley, Lonoke, McGehee, Newport, Pine Bluff, Pochahontas, Searcy and Stuttgart.
